ORDER

The Court has reviewed Plaintiffs' renewed motion for class certification (ECF No. 101) and the parties' briefing. The Court believes that additional factual information may be helpful in resolving the motion. The parties are directed to electronically file the following by Monday, April 5, 2021, at 5 p.m.:

1. Plaintiffs Moran, de Lacour, and Wright shall each submit affidavits stating the approximate day, month, and year that each last purchased Defendants' deodorant product(s), as identified on Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Sarah N. Westcot (ECF No. 103), and stating the specific deodorant product(s) purchased;
2. Defendants shall submit affidavit(s) and any appropriate supporting documentation stating the approximate day, month, and year that the deodorant product(s) with re-designed packaging, pursuant to the settlement agreement in Gay v. Tom's of Maine, Inc. (Lally Decl. at Ex. S ¶ IX.B, ECF No. 118), were first made available to ordinary consumers, such as Plaintiffs;

3. The complete deposition transcripts of Plaintiffs Moran (July 17, 2018), de Lacour (July 18, 2018), and Wright (July 19, 2018), along with all exhibits that were introduced during Plaintiffs' depositions.

SO ORDERED.
